THE Gas Steam Radiator is the ideal thing for the dining room on chilly mornings or evenings before you start your furnaces. They use but little gas and are handsome in design.

There is nothing like a Clow Steam Gas Radiator for busy office men.

People who are provided with steam heating are getting the Gas Heater also, to be used at times and places when other heat cannot be used. Have you a little pipe gas heater for your bath? Nothing so nice and quick to take chill out of the air. You should have one of these with your Metal gas proof hose.

EXPLOSION IN A MINE

Twenty to Thirty Miners Are Reported to Be Missing.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 5.—A special from Nanaimo says that an explosion occurred at 10 o'clock this morning at the Extension mines and it is believed that many men lost their lives. Two men were on their way out of the mines and had just reached the surface when the explosion occurred. They reported sixty men at work in the mines.

An effort is being made by a rescue party to enter the mine.

Victoria, Oct. 5.—1:20 p. m.—A telephone message from Ladysmith states that between twenty and thirty miners are still unaccounted for at the Extension mines.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Fees Collected.—The fees collected by the sheriff's office during the month of October amounted to $24.83.

A Laundress wanted at State School for Deaf and Blind.

Decision Reversed.—The supreme court overruled the opinion rendered by the district court in the case of the Volker-Scofield Lumber company against Mrs. Mary Flinders Vance and Irving Peterson. The decision handed down by the supreme court was that no homestead was subject to a mechanic's lien unless the parties concerned so specified in writing.

Named Harrop As Defendant.—The Van Meter Harrop case has been filed with the county clerk, naming James Harrop as a defendant party in their case against James Leavitt. The harness people say that they were granted a writ of attachment against Leavitt but it has been very unsatisfactory. They also claim that Leavitt has put some of his debts, monies, credits and personal property in the name of the county Auditor and that Harrop claims it is and is withholding it from them. Harrop can not be reached by the usual process of law so they named him as a defendant party.

Relieved of Money.—J. W. Loder of Reno, Nev., was relieved of $30 by a pickpocket last night at the Union depot. Mr. Loder was waiting for some ladies to get on the train. There were a number of passengers near the door, and as he stepped to one side to allow the ladies to pass, he was jostled by some fellow, and when he felt in his pocket he was minus his money. He saw the thief and gave a description of him to the police, but the officers had failed to apprehend him last night.

Young Nevada Couple Married.—Another illustration of the old saying, "The course of true love never runs smooth," was given in the county clerk's office yesterday, when Adelbert C. Rich, and Miss Mary Lovett Symes, both of Elko, Nev., applied for a marriage license. The girl was under the age limit, and although she had a letter of consent from her mother, it was not signed by a notary, and County Clerk Dye was in a quandary as to what course to take. The girl had received a letter from her mother yesterday, and she was told to get it, and if the writing in the letter corresponded to the writing in the letter she had first presented, the clerk would consider the matter. The couple hurried to their hotel and in a few minutes they produced the letter. It seemed to be genuine, so the couple were taken into Clerk Dye's private office, where Elder John V. Bluth tied the nuptial knot. After the ceremony the couple left for their home in Nevada.

LAST EXHIBITION OF THE WRIGHTS

New York, Oct. 5.—Unless some change of heart should alter a decision announced today by Wilbur Wright, the spectacular flight made here yesterday by the Dayton aviator is the last which he or his brother Orville will make in public.

"Hereafter," said Mr. Wright, "we shall devote all our efforts to the commercial exploitation of our machine, and only fly as a matter of experiment, to test the value of whatever changes we decide to make in their construction."

Mr. Wright added that neither he nor his brother wished to be looked upon as showmen, and that all offers to fly for exhibition purposes would be rejected.

"The flight of yesterday," said he, "was more than an exhibition. It was more like the taking up of a challenge or the making of a record to stand as a milestone in the history of aerial navigation. I would have done better than I did had not the blowing out of a cylinder of my machine prevented me from making a second flight; but, all things considered, I am satisfied with my performance of the morning."

CASE MAY GO TO THE SUPREME COURT

Can any one legally cut a new bed for a stream and then use the old bed for private purposes? This is a question in which the state game commission does not agree with Jos. Barker of Weber county. The case has been heard once and decided in favor of Barker, but will come before the Supreme court at the October term.

It seems that Barker owns some land on which are sundry springs and brooks good for breeding fish. For years fish were taken from the brook, so it is claimed, cut a new channel for Huntsville Spring creek to connect it with the Ogden river and took the breeding ground for a private fish hatchery. Barker claims that all he is required to do is to allow free passage for the creek through his land and to reclaim all the rest as he sees fit, while the state fish guardians claim that Barker is attempting to bar trout from its habitat contrary to a list of laws a foot long reaching from King John to Taft.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds him self regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."
